

2018 Visitor Studies Association Student Scholarship Application

Welcome to the 2018 Visitor Studies Association Student Scholarship application.

Scholarships are awarded to up to three students and/or recent graduates who show great potential to contribute to the growth of VSA and the field of visitor studies. Below are four prompts for you to complete. Please note that all responses are limited to 250 words or less. You can save your work using the button at the top of the survey at any time.

Submissions will be accepted through Friday, February 16, 2018. Awardees will be contacted on Sunday, April 1, 2018. Questions regarding the student scholarship application can be sent to taline@kuyumjianconsulting.com.

Best of luck!

1. We'd like to get to know you a little better. Please start by telling us who you are.
 - a. First Name
 - b. Last Name
 - c. Degree You are Pursuing
 - d. School or Academic Institution
 - e. Email Address
2. Reflecting on this year's conference theme (New Pathways in Visitor Studies), tell us two or three ways you hope attending the conference will help you to develop or advance your professional goals and why.
3. Describe the article, book, class, experience or person that has most influenced your interest in visitor studies/evaluation, and why you think visitor studies is important.
4. Identify an area of study you think has potential for improving visitor studies or the visitor experience and explain why you think the area has this potential.
5. Using the Evaluator Competencies (located here: <http://www.visitorstudies.org/competency-list>) identify the top three competencies you would like to work on or explore at the Visitor Studies Association conference. Please explain why you selected those competencies and why they are important to you.
6. Please share contact information for two academic, professional or personal references. The individuals you select should be familiar with projects you are working on, as well as be able to speak to your experiences with visitor studies and how attending the 2018 annual conference will help you grow.

Note: References will be contacted if your application is a finalist in the reviews process. Please confirm with your references that they will be available to respond to three brief questions between Monday, March 12, 2018, and Friday, March 23, 2018.
